

BOOK CLUB REVIEW – September 4, 2018

Book Club met early this month in order to accommodate several members who will be gone for the day we normally meet. Twelve members gathered to welcome Fran Hare as a special guest speaker. Fran is a member of a book club that meets at the Bowden Institution, a medium security prison operated by Correctional Services Canada. Fran shared interesting information, fascinating tales, and gave us all some thought-provoking ideas to ponder. She also provided us with the titles of many interesting books that we might enjoy reading in the future. The rest of the afternoon was spent eating cookies and selecting books for the next ten months. The following are our choices. (Note the various dates as there are a few changes from the usual)

October 2 at 3:00 – Shirley Challoner will present the book Looking For Alaska by John Green. There may be a speaker discussing her thesis which was about this book. (Note change of day and time.)

October 23 – Therese will present, A Man Called Ove, by Fredrik Backman. (Note change of date)

November 20 – Coleen will present, Hotel On the Corner of Bitter and Sweet by Jamie Ford

December 18 – Sharon G. will present, Keeper'n Me by Richard Wagamese

January 15 – Anne will present, The Air You Breath by Frances Peebles

February 19 – Lynne W. will present Eleanor Oliphant Is Completely Fine, by Gail Honeyman

March 19 – Faye H. will present Winter Garden by Kristin Hannah
